

Applicant's Full Name (Surname first):	Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female <input type="checkbox"/> Language Preference: French <input type="checkbox"/> English <input type="checkbox"/>
Citizenship/immigration status	Award Sought : MSc <input type="checkbox"/> PhD <input type="checkbox"/> Postdoctoral <input type="checkbox"/> Date degree expected
Supervisor's Name (Surname first):
Institution:

- Trainee's Current Curriculum Vitae: Identify degrees with years obtained and University; any research experience; awards/scholarships held; publications or scientific abstracts presented; explanation of delays or interruptions; and work contact address, phone no. and email address.
- Supervisor's Confidential Evaluation of Applicant (include contact address, phone no., email). Provide an explanation for anything unusual in the application (low grades, year off etc).
- For post-doctoral applications only: letter of support from PhD supervisor.
- Brief Supervisor's CV (3 page limit)
- Brief Description of Trainee's Proposed Research: Must be prepared together with the supervisor Attach a single-spaced (one-page maximum) description of the trainee's proposed research, including relevance to the group's research goals. Must include the following headings: background, hypothesis and rationale, objectives and methodology
- Undergraduate and graduate studies transcripts (photocopies accepted)
- Brief description (1/2 page maximum) describing future career plans of trainee

Indicate current trainee funding source:

Title of Trainee's Research:

Requested Period of Support by the Training Program: From _____ to _____ (max. 24 months)

Applicant	Supervisor
Signature:	Signature:
Name:	Name:
Date	Date:

Send one complete application form to: Neuroinflammation CIHR Strategic Training Program
Montreal Neurological Institute
3801 University Street, room 111 Montreal H3A 2B4
or linda.gilbert@mcgill.ca

To acknowledge receipt of the application, an e-mail will be sent to the applicant's supervisor